

Bellringer:

Write 5 questions

about the Natural World.

8/28/13
A little bit of Science
Lab

Aug 28-1:14 PM

1.1 Review

Grade: 7th

Subject: Life Science

Date: 8/28

Aug 28-9:53 AM

- 1 For every organism that has ever lived,
- A there is only one question to ask
 - ☒ B many questions could be asked
 - C every question has already been asked
 - D every question has already been answered

Aug 28-11:56 AM

- 2 If you are about to make an observation of a living thing and then ask a question about what you observed, you are...

- A noticing the diversity of life
- ☒ B behaving like a scientist
- C solving a problem
- D learning how to protect the environment

Aug 28-10:03 AM

3 Which of the following people is LEAST suited to being a life scientist?

- A someone who likes sports
- B someone who goes to school
- C someone who is very curious
- ☒ D someone who has no interest in organisms

Aug 28-11:57 AM

4 A life scientist is LEAST likely to be found working...

- A in a laboratory
- B in a hospital
- ☒ C in an art museum
- D at the bottom of the ocean

Aug 28-11:58 AM

5 Some life scientists work to study disease.

True

False

Aug 28-11:58 AM

6 Some life scientists study weather pattern s

True

False

Aug 28-11:59 AM

7 Questions that life scientists today are trying to answer include all of the following EXCEPT

- A the part of a person's inherited information responsible for certain inherited diseases
- B how the human body changes over time
- C how shells have changed over time
- ☒ D the age of the oldest star

Aug 28-12:00 PM